

Pathways of Hope and Faith Among Hispanic Teens

Pastoral Reflections and Strategies Inspired by the National Study of Youth and Religion

Edited by: Ken Johnson-Mondragón

Foreword by: Christian Smith

~~$29.95~~, 392 pages, ISBN 978-0-9800293-0-7

NACYML Special: $25.00. Shipping is free on orders of 4 or more. Must be purchased using this form. One offer per customer only.

“The landscape of the Church is changing rapidly, and we need to develop new maps! Pathways of Hope and Faith Among Hispanic Teens provides a rich analysis of current issues, practices, and challenges for our ministry with the young Hispanic church. Indeed, the authors identify critical elements and directions necessary for creating a more effective and comprehensive youth ministry map, so that pathways of authentic hope and faith can be realized.”

Robert J. McCarty, D.Min.
Executive Director of the National Federation for Catholic Youth Ministry

Building on the largest national survey of teenage religion ever conducted, Pathways of Hope and Faith Among Hispanic Teens invites you to learn from leading Catholic and Protestant experts as they recount in unprecedented detail the experiences of God, faith, community, youth ministry, and family among the fastest-growing segment of young people in the country—Latinos. This book is a must-read for pastors, youth ministers, teachers, parents, sociologists, and anyone else who cares about the wellbeing and faith development of Latino/a adolescents.

- Listen as young Hispanics describe their faith and hopes in their own words.
- Gain understanding of the major issues affecting their religious development and life prospects.
- Improve your ministry or family life with insightful pastoral recommendations.

Name: _____
 Address: _____
 City, State, Zip: _____
 Telephone: _____
 E-mail: _____

Qty	Item	Price
	Pathways of Hope...
	8% Tax (CA)
	15% Shipping
	Total:

